

Second Annual
ALLIED ARTS EXHIBITION OF
DALLAS COUNTY

Presented by
THE DALLAS ART ASSOCIATION

Fair Park Gallery
DALLAS

April 18th to 28th, 1929

Foreword

Only by constant repetition does doctrine become dogma.

Therefore, is repeated the foreword that appeared in the catalog of the first Allied Arts Exhibit of Dallas County.

"The Dallas Art Association, in presenting its first Allied Arts Exhibition of Dallas County, was inspired by the thought of bringing to the attention of the people of Dallas the artistic objects created within their midst. How well it has succeeded, the Exhibition itself will prove, but it is safe to forecast that the splendid co-operation that has been evidenced by those who are interested in promoting the artistic and cultural development of our City, not only among the artists and artisans themselves, but among the laity, as well, will of itself produce a result thoroughly worth-while.

"The Dallas Art Association feels that it can perform no greater service to the community than that of bringing together those who create the beautiful things of life and those who admire and would acquire them.

"It is hoped that this first exhibition is but the beginning of what may be justified as an annual event, and that the patronage may be liberal, in order that the creative genius of our very own may be inspired to higher and greater things."

Art is never stationary. It progresses or it dies. May we find in this second annual Allied Arts Exhibition of Dallas County many signs of progress.

EXTRACTS FROM RULES GOVERNING THE EXHIBITION:

The Exhibition will be sub-divided into ten classifications, as follows:

- 1 (A) Oil Paintings
- 2 (A) Water Color or Pastel Paintings
- 3 (A) Crayons, Drawings in Black and White,
Etchings and Silhouettes
- 4 (A) Miniatures
- 5 (A) Illustrations and Block Prints
- 6 (B) Sculpture and Modeling in any Medium
- 7 (B) Ceramics
- 8 (B) Wood-Carving
- 9 (B) Metalwork
- 10 (A) Batiks

There will be two prizes awarded under each classification, if, in the opinion of the judges, such awards are merited. The first prize will be $15.00 in cash, and the second prize, $10.00 in cash. In addition, there will be Honorable Mention in each classification, if, in the opinion of the judges, such Honorable Mention is merited.

All work exhibited must be the original handiwork of a living resident of Dallas County, and no work which has been awarded a prize in a previous Allied Arts Exhibition will be eligible for re-exhibition.

The Dallas Art Association reserves the right to announce additional special prizes to be awarded at its discretion.

There will be two Review Committees, composed of professional artists, known as Committees A and B, to whom will be referred the various classifications as indicated by the letters in the list. Each Review Committee will be composed of three members.

In like manner, there will be two groups of judges, to be designated as Jury A and B, each consisting of three professional artists, selected, if possible, from outside Dallas and Dallas County.
